It does not seem to be correct to conclude, as the D. G. has done, that my Sheriff has not obeyed the orders of Govt.

2) The D-ship & jailer's pay has also been reduced to Rs:80/ & media It seems to be a point for consideration whether, under the circumstances, the leave recommended by the D. G. may not be granted to my Sheriff.

4) We have granted to the Chief just which have also probably expired by this time.

b) I fear a disturbance will ensue in respect of the pay now drawn by the new entrant. I think it will be well if the matter can be disposed of before the members disperse for the week end.

Resignation of Mr. A. H. Sheriff, Jailor, Bangalore Central Jail.

23 Government in their Order dated 10th January 1921 confirmed Mr. Abdulla Hussain Sheriff, Prisons Probationer, as a Supernumerary Jailor on Rs.100-5-125 and as the post of Deputy Jailor happened to be vacant then, he was asked to do the duties of that Office, his status and pay remaining unaffected. Mr.Sheriff would not join his new appointment, as he thought it was infra dig on his part to do the duties of a lower office when he held a higher rank and status. He accordingly tendered his resignation, which the Inspector General of Prisons forwarded to the Government granting him at the same time leave without allowances for 6 months. It was explained that the Orders of the Government did not affect the pay and status of Mr. Sheriff, that in accordance with the policy of retrenchment and the recommendation of the Finance Committee, the appointments of Probationers had to be absorbed, that as it was not possible to retain an extra supernumerary appointment, ~~that~~ Mr. Sheriff had to be absorbed in some appointment in the Jail Department, and that as a supernumerary officer he should be prepared to do any duties which the Government ~~may~~ might assign to him. The Inspector General was therefore asked to recall him to duty, but Mr. Sheriff has remained obdurate and the Inspector General reports that he has gone to Bombay.

24 It is therefore proposed to dispense with the services of Mr.Sheriff, to which the gracious approval of His Highness is solicited.
